Judging Process

Teams: Each judging team will consist of educators, including a member of the language arts and/or arts department, parents, and a representative from business/industry in the community. Selection of judges is left to the discretion of the contest coordinators.

Criteria: Judging will be based on originality, creativity, and development of the national theme. Poems will be evaluated on appropriate form, execution, spelling, and grammar. Poster evaluation will focus on the appropriate use of media, lettering, and basic principals of art. Please adhere to the size requirements for each entry as many entries are received.

State Awards

The state chair is responsible to have their winning entries delivered to the National Chair by January 18, 2012. State coordinators are responsible for coordinating prizes, certificates, and celebration for their state winners. ALL entries MUST go through the State Contest.

County/District and building awards are made at the discretion of the local coordinators.

National Awards

The National Chair in coordination with the NCDA Headquarter Office will prepare the national awards. National awards will be given to the first, second, and third place winners in the six divisions in both the Poetry and Poster Contests.

National winners will be recognized with the winning entries placed on the NCDA website, www.ncda.org, by April 20, 2012. The winning entries will also be on display at the Annual Global Conference to be held in Atlanta, Georgia, June 21-23, 2012. In addition, National winners will receive from the National Career Development Association, a certificate and a special congratulations gift.
