Ceramics

Curriculum Code: 123*Program Information

Clay College's credit and continuing education ceramics courses are popular among young and old students who take the courses during the day, in the evening and on weekends. Students can take ceramics courses with a career in mind or for personal enrichment.

Both credit and non-credit students learn to mold and fire ceramics, and "throw pots" at Cumberland County College's Clay College, located on High Street in the Millville Arts District. Residents and students of Clay College form distinctive pottery and sculpture by using various hand building techniques including pinch, coil slab and the pottery wheel.

Impressive Facility

Clay College is a spacious facility that's 150 feet long, and equipped with 15 pottery wheels and four kilns. The gallery at the entrance showcases the work of students as well as local and regional artists.

When You Graduate

Certificate programs provide specific career skills development as well as the opportunity to test an area of interest, or enhance a degree program. Students who complete a certificate program can continue to obtain an associate's degree and beyond.
