Course: MU 170, 171, 270, 271 Applied Music - Woodwinds

Credits: 1

Prerequisites

None

Description

Private instruction in woodwinds is designed to develop musicianship and technical proficiency, and to further the ability to sight read and to assimilate music without guidance. This course is designed for music majors desiring to prepare for a woodwind audition to a four year college. This course is also designed for the student seeking to learn to play for personal enjoyment.

Learning Outcomes

- Analyze and evaluate the fundamentals of the creative process and performance.
- Perform with correct rhythm, articulation, dynamics, phrasing, and expression appropriate to the literature being studied.
- Perform in a stylistically appropriate manner suitable to the genre, period and style of the literature.
- Memorize performance literature when appropriate to the performance medium and artistic tradition.
- Sight read music appropriate to this level.

Topical Outline

- Proper hand position, fingering habits, varying touches which produce Legato and Staccato, and contrasts of dynamic levels.
- Knowledge of scale and arpeggio fingerings.
- Knowledge of rhythmic understanding through simple sight-reading examples.
- Learn the materials assigned from the woodwind text.
- Prepare one memorized piece at a level of difficulty commensurate with the student's technical level of ability.
- Perform in the student recital at the end of the semester (music majors only).

Required Texts and Other Materials

Repertoire based on the student's ability.

Academic Integrity

Plagiarism is cheating. Plagiarism is presenting in written work, in public speaking, and in oral reports the ideas or exact words of someone else without proper documentation. Whether the act of plagiarism is deliberate or accidental [ignorance of the proper rules for handling material is no excuse], plagiarism is, indeed, a "criminal" offense.

As such, a plagiarized paper or report automatically receives a grade of ZERO and the student may receive a grade of F for the semester at the discretion of the instructor.

Before Withdrawing From This Course

If a student experiences adverse circumstances while enrolled in this course and considers withdrawing, s/he should see an advisor (division or advisement center) BEFORE withdrawing from the class. A withdrawal may cause harmful repercussions to completion rate standards and overall GPA which can limit or eliminate future financial aid in addition to causing academic suspension.
